

MEMO

Date: May 15, 2026

From: Dionne Schulze

Re: Class actions table regarding historical abuses suffered by Indigenous members

This table presents publicly available information as of the date noted in the header. For the latest updates, please reach out to the lawyers listed for each action.*

Please note that this is not legal advice; consult a lawyer for guidance on your specific situation.*

Class Action	Issue	Eligibility	Compensation Process	For more information
REMEDIES FOR EDUCATION OR EDUCATIONAL PLACEMENTS
Noëlla Mark	Sexual assault by Oblates	Sexually assaulted by a nun, member, or employee of the religious congregation The Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate (Missionnaires Oblats de Marie Immaculée) between January 1, 1940, and December 31, 2018.	This action was authorized by the Superior Court of Quebec on November 16, 2021; no trial date has been set yet and no settlement has been reached. As a result, there is no guaranteed compensation nor any deadline for the time	Arsenault Dufresne Wee Website (documents in French only): https://www.adwvocats.com/en/missionary-oblates-of-mary-immaculate/ Email: adw@adwvocats.com Tel.: (514) 527-8903

Class Action	Issue	Eligibility	Compensation Process	For more information
		Exception: those who already claimed for the same abuse under Residential Schools Class Action and McLean	being.
Pénosway	Résidence Pavillon Notre-Dame-de-la-Route	Stayed at the residence Pavillon Notre-Dame-de-la-Route in Louvicourt.	This class action has been authorized by the Superior Court of Quebec on December 2, 2022; no trial date has been set and no settlement has been reached. Therefore, no compensation is guaranteed. Lawyers are collecting information about the residence and the experiences of previous residents. These individuals are encouraged to contact Dionne Schulze and to register to the mailing list.	Dionne Schulze Website: Abuse at Louvicourt Residence – Dionne Schulze Email: louvicourt@dionneschulze.ca Tel.: (514) 842-0748

Class Action	Issue	Eligibility	Compensation Process	For more information
Indian Residential Schools Settlement Agreement (IRSSA)	Indian Residential School	The deadline to apply has expired. Rights are extinguished for those who applied under the Independent Assessment Process (IAP) established by the IRSSA. Those who never applied for the IAP and who were victims of abuse in a residential school may still be able to sue.		For information on the opportunity to sue, for individuals who have never applied for compensation (other than the Common Experience Payments), please contact: Dionne Schulze Email: admin@dionneschulze.ca Tel.: (514) 842-0748
Gottfriedson	Indian Residential Schools Day Scholars	First group: Attended an Indian Residential School as a day student, without having stayed overnight in the residence. List of residential schools Heirs and successors of a day student deceased on or after May 30, 2005, can make a claim for that person. Compensates cultural, linguistic, and psychological harms, but not sexual and physical harms suffered at residential school (IRSSA) or federal day schools (McLean).	It is not possible to make a claim. The deadline to apply has expired.

Class Action	Issue	Eligibility	Compensation Process	For more information
		Second group: Bands whose members attended an Indian Residential School as day students and opted into the class action. List of Bands	A settlement was reached on January 18, 2023 and approved by the Federal Court on March 9, 2023. The Four Pillars Society was created to invest and distribute the settlement fund to the 325 bands that signed on.	Website: https://bandreparations.ca/fr/
McLean	Federal day schools or “Federal Indian Day Schools”	Attended a federal day school during the period covered by Schedule K of the settlement agreement and experienced abuse or harm. List of Schools (Schedule K)	It is not possible to file a claim as the deadline has now expired. The deadline for missing information has also expired.

Class Action	Issue	Eligibility	Compensation Process	For more information
Jonah	Provincial day schools located on a reserve or an Indian settlement or an Inuit village in Quebec	Attended a provincial day school (administered by a province or a school board) located on a reserve or Indian settlement or Inuit village in Quebec. Does not include federal Indian day schools which are covered by McLean nor provincial schools off reserve.	This class action was authorized by the Superior Court on December 8th, 2023. A trial date has yet to be set and no settlement has been reached. As a result, there is no guaranteed compensation nor any deadline for the time being.	Dionne Schulze Email: jonah@dionneschulze.ca Tel.: 514-842-0748 Website: Provincial Indian Day Schools – Dionne Schulze Trudel Johnson Lespérance (TJL) Website: tjl.quebec/recours-collectifs/ecoles-de-jour-provinciales-territoriales-publiques-ou-religieuses/ Email: info@tjl.quebec Tel.: 514 871-8385/1-844-588-8385
Percival	Boarding Homes	Placed by the Government of Canada with a family for the purpose of attending elementary or secondary school (whether in an Indigenous community or in a town or city), between 1951 and 1992. Does not include placements for the purpose of attending a post-secondary institution, or placements within the child welfare or youth protection	A settlement agreement was approved by the Federal Court on December 11, 2023. The claims process is open since August 21st, 2024. Claim forms are available at https://boardinghomesclassaction.com/claim-forms/ Eligible claimants may apply for two categories of compensation:	Dionne Schulze (Quebec) Email: percival@dionneschulze.ca Tel.: 1-888-232-3778 514-842-0748 Klein Lawyers (other Provinces and Territories of Canada) Email: ibhclassaction@callkleinlawyers.com Tel.: 1-604-874-7171 A member can hire a lawyer to submit his/her claim on his/her behalf for

Class Action	Issue	Eligibility	Compensation Process	For more information
		system.	- Category 1: Compensation Claim for Placement in the Indian Boarding Home Program - Category 2: Compensation Claim for Abuse Free legal representation is available for claimants who need support filing their claim. The deadline to submit a claim is February 22, 2027.	Category 1 and 2 claims. If a member hires a lawyer of his/her choosing to help him/her submit his/her Category 1 and 2 claim, Canada will pay his/her lawyer an amount equal to 5% (plus tax) of the Category 2 payment received and will not come out of the member compensation. Canada will not pay any lawyer fees for a Category 1 claim. Claims administrator: PwC Website: boardinghomesclassaction.com/ Email: claims@boardinghomesclassaction.com Tel.: 1-888-499-1144
Catcheway	Discrimination in school funding on reserve	All individual students who attended a First Nation Managed School for educational purposes at any time during the period from and including April 17, 1985 until October 18, 2021 .	This action was certified (authorized) by the Federal Court on April 26, 2023. No trial date has been set yet and no settlement has been reached. As a result, there is no guaranteed compensation nor any deadline for the time being.	Klein Lawyers Website: https://www.callkleinlawyers.com/class-actions/first-nations-schools-class-action/ Tel.: (604) 874 7171

Class Action	Issue	Eligibility	Compensation Process	For more information
REMEDIES FOR CHILD SERVICES AND YOUTH PROTECTION
Sixties' Scoop	Adoption by non-Aboriginal families	Children removed from their family between January 1, 1951, and December 31, 1991, and placed in the care of a foster family (usually under the child welfare or youth protection system) or in the care of non-Aboriginal adoptive parents for a cumulative period of five (5) years or more. Does not include placements by the Government of Canada to attend elementary or secondary school.	It is not possible to file a claim as the deadline has now expired.
Ward	Placement and adoption into non-Indigenous homes (excluding the Sixties' Scoop class)	For the action against the Attorney General of Canada (AGC): Unregistered Indians or Metis: - removed from their family as children by application of an assimilation policy or program through childcare services promoted or operated by Canada or Quebec; - and: - o placed in the care of a non-Aboriginal foster family, or - o adopted by non-Aboriginal	This action was authorized by the Quebec Superior Court on February 28, 2023 (judgment rectified on October 10, 2023); no trial date has been set yet and no settlement has been reached. As a result, there is no guaranteed compensation nor any deadline for the time being.	Merchant Law Group LLP Tel.: 514-248-7777 poste 2201 1-888-567-7777 Email: info@merchantlaw.com montreal@merchantlaw.com Website: https://www.merchantlaw.com/class-actions-recodurs-collectif-canada/60s-scoop-class-action-against-the-province-of-quebec-and-agc/

Class Action	Issue	Eligibility	Compensation Process	For more information
		parents or into a non-Aboriginal foster family, or o placed in the care of a non-Aboriginal tutor, in Quebec between 1951 and January 1st, 2020. For the action against the Attorney General of Quebec: All Aboriginal persons (registered Indians, unregistered Indians, Metis, Inuit) removed from their family and placed in the same manner and for the same period as for the action against the AGC.
First Nations Child and Family Services (FNCFS) complaint – compensation process (order of the Canadian Human Rights Tribunal)	Discrimination in funding of the First Nations child and family services program	First Nations children unnecessarily removed from their on-reserve home or in the Yukon Territory on or after January 1, 2006, who, as a result of poverty, lack of housing or deemed appropriate housing, neglect and substance abuse had their child unnecessarily apprehended and placed in care outside of their homes, families and communities, under the child welfare or youth protection system, and did not	On July 26, 2023, the Canadian Human Rights Tribunal approved the settlement agreement reached in this complaint and in the Moushoom class action (the next action in this table). The agreement has been approved by the Federal Court on October 24, 2023. The claims period opened on	Nahwegahbow Corbiere Genoodmagejig – Barristers & Solicitors Fasken Martineau DuMoulin LLP Tel.: 1-877-750-5554. Sotos Class Actions Tel.: 1-866-857-7047 Société administratrice : Deloitte

Class Action	Issue	Eligibility	Compensation Process	For more information benefit from prevention services in the form of least disruptive measures or other prevention services permitting them to keep their child safely in their homes, (as well as their parents or grandparents) OR First Nations children whose removal from their families was necessary under the child welfare system on or after January 1, 2006, but who were placed outside of their extended families and communities and therefore did not benefit from the least disruptive measures and other prevention services that would have permitted them to remain safely in their extended families and communities OR First Nations children who were placed in care outside of their families to obtain services or who were not removed from their families but were denied or received services after an unreasonable delay or upon reconsideration ordered by the Tribunal between December 12, 2007, and November 2, 2017	March 10th, 2025, only for the Removed Child Class and the Removed Child Family Class. Claim forms are available here. Deadline for claims: March 10th, 2028. Note: The Canadian Human Rights Tribunal's order is not a class action, but it covers all individuals affected.	Website: https://fnchildclaims.ca/ Email: generalinfo@contact.fnchildclaims.ca Tel.: 1-833-852-0755

Class Action	Issue	Eligibility	Compensation Process	For more information
		(as well as their parents or grandparents).
First Nations child and family services, Jordan's Principle, Moushoom, Trout and Kith	Canada's systemic discrimination in the underfunding of child and family services on reserve and in the Yukon, and its narrow interpretation of Jordan's Principle	See this memo on the eligible classes Removed Child Class: First Nations children who, while under the age of majority between April 1, 1991 and March 31, 2022, were removed from their homes on-reserve or in the Yukon by child welfare authorities and placed into care funded by Indigenous Services Canada (ISC). OR Caregiving Parents or caregiving Grandparents of the children of the Removed Child Class. Kith Child Class First Nations individuals who were placed by a caregiving parent or caregiving grandparent off-reserve with a non-family caregiver, while the child was an ordinarily resident on reserve or living in the Yukon and where a Child Welfare Authority was involved in the placement between April 1, 1991 and March 31, 2022.	On July 26, 2023, the Canadian Human Rights Tribunal approved the settlement agreement reached in this complaint and in the previous class action before the Canadian Human Rights Tribunal. The agreement was approved by the Federal Court on October 24, 2023. The claims period opened on March 10th, 2025, only for the Removed Child Class and the Removed Child Family Class. Claim forms are available here. Deadline for claims: March 10th, 2028. Claimants who may be eligible for more than one group will need to submit separate claim forms when the claim period opens for each group.	Nahwegahbow Corbiere Genoodmagejig – Barristers & Solicitors Fasken Martineau DuMoulin LLP Tel.: 1-877-750-5554. Sotos Class Actions Tel.: 1-866-857-7047 Société administratrice : Deloitte Website: https://fnchildclaims.ca/ Email: generalinfo@contact.fnchildclaims.ca a Tel.: 1-833-852-0755

Class Action	Issue	Eligibility	Compensation Process	For more information
		OR Caregiving Parents or caregiving Grandparents of the children of the Kith Child Class. Jordan's Principle Class First Nations individuals who suffered the highest level of impact (including pain, suffering or harm of the worst kind) due to a delay, denial or service gap for an essential service from Canada while they were a child, between December 12, 2007 and November 2, 2017. OR Caregiving parents or caregiving grandparents of the children of the Jordan's Principle Class. Trout Child Class First Nations individuals who faced a delay, denial or service gap for an essential service from Canada while they were a child between April 1, 1991 and December 11, 2007. OR

Class Action	Issue	Eligibility	Compensation Process	For more information
		Caregiving parents or caregiving grandparents of the children of the Trout Child Class. Essential Service Class First Nations individuals who were confirmed to have needed an essential service and did not receive that service or experienced a delay in receiving it from Canada while they were a child, between December 12, 2007 and November 2, 2017.
Millennium Scoop / A.B. and Jones	Discrimination in Indigenous child and family services funding (excluding members of Moushoom's target group residing on a reserve)	National class action: - all off-reserve Indigenous (First Nations, Métis, and Inuit) children in Canada who were removed from their homes while they were under the age of 18, since 1992; OR - all off-reserve Indigenous children in Canada who were denied prompt access to an essential service, since 1992; OR - The caregiving parents and grandparents of those children. 	The Federal Court of Appeal overturned the Federal Court's certification (authorization) of the national class action and dismissed it on May 29, 2025, due to the multiple provincial/territorial class actions that are more appropriate than a national action in Federal Court given the applicable provincial/territorial child welfare legislation. 	National class action: https://millenniumscoopcan.ca/ Cochrane Saxberg Harold Cochrane Email: hcochrane@cochranesaxberg.com Shawn Scarcello Email: sscarcello@cochranesaxberg.com Stacey Soldier Email: ssoldier@cochranesaxberg.com Alyssa Cloutier

Class Action	Issue	Eligibility	Compensation Process	For more information
		Quebec class action (A.B. and Jones): - All Inuit children in Nunavik who were removed from their homes while they were under the age of 18, since November 11, 1975; OR - All Inuit children in Nunavik who were denied prompt access to an essential service, since November 11, 1975; OR - All off-reserve Indigenous (First Nations, Métis, and Inuit) children in Quebec who were removed from their homes while they were under the age of 18, since 1992; OR - The caregiving parents and grandparents of those children.	The Quebec class action was certified (authorized) by the Superior Court of Québec on April 30, 2024. No trial date has been set and no settlement has been reached. As a result, there is no guaranteed compensation nor any deadline for the time being.	Email: acloutier@cochrane-saxberg.com Tel.: (204) 594-6688 Murphy Battista Angela Bessflug Email: Bessflug@murphybattista.com Tel.: 604-683-9621 Janelle O'Connor Email: oonconnor@murphybattista.com Website: www.murphybattista.com/practice-areas/class-action-lawsuits/indigenous-child-welfare-class-action/ Email: bandsclaim@murphybattista.com Tel.: 1-844-633-3817 Miller Titerle & Co Joelle Walker Email: joelle@millertiterle.com Tamara Napoleon Email: tamara@millertiterle.com

Class Action	Issue	Eligibility	Compensation Process	For more information
				Erin Reimer Email: erin@millertiterle.com Tel.: (604) 681-4112 Quebec class action (A.B. and Jones) : Sotos Class Actions Tel.: 1-866-857-7047 Kugler Kandestin Alexandre Brosseau-Wery Email: awery@kklex.com Tel.: (514) 360-8865 Emily Painter Email: epainter@kklex.com Tel.: (514) 360-3462 Website: https://kklex.com/class_actions/kugler-kandestin-helps-indigenous-youth-in-quebec-bring-a-class-action-against-governments-of-canada-and-quebec-over-youth-protection-services-and-other-essential-services/ Coupal Chauvelot Louis-Nicholas Coupal

Class Action	Issue	Eligibility	Compensation Process	For more information
				Email: lnc@coupalchauvelot.com Tel.: (514) 903-3390 Victor Chauvelot Email: victor@coupalchauvelot.com Tel.: (514) 903-3390 Website: www.coupalchauvelot.com/en/nunavikyouth
Millennium Scoop (Bands class action)	Discrimination in Indigenous child and family services funding – Bands class action	Be a Band that has been discriminated by the Indigenous child and family services funding since April 1, 1991. To be included in the action, bands must ask lawyers to add them to the group.	The Federal Court has certified (authorized) the action as a class proceeding. Canada has appealed the certification to the Federal Court of Appeal. No trial date has been set and no settlement has been reached. As a result, there is no guaranteed compensation nor any deadline for the time being.	Sotos Class Actions Website: https://www.sotosclassactions.com/cases/first-nations-bands/ Emails : dsterns@sotos.ca mseddigh@sotos.ca aabdulla@sotos.ca Tel.: 1-416-977-0007 Cochrane Saxberg Harold Cochrane Email: hcochrane@cochranesaxberg.com Shawn Scarcello Email: sscarcello@cochranesaxberg.com

Class Action	Issue	Eligibility	Compensation Process	For more information
				Stacey Soldier Email: ssoldier@cochransaxberg.com Alyssa Cloutier Email: acloutier@cochransaxberg.com Tel.: (204) 594-6688 Murphy Battista Website: www.murphybattista.com/practice-areas/class-action-lawsuits/first-nations-bands-class-action/ Email: bandsclaim@murphybattista.com Tel.: 1-844-633-3817 Miller Titerle & Co Joelle Walker Email: joelle@millertiterle.com Tamara Napoleon Email: tamara@millertiterle.com Erin Reimer Email: erin@millertiterle.com Tel.: (604) 681-4112

Class Action	Issue	Eligibility	Compensation Process	For more information
				Gowling WLG Maxime Faille Email: maxime.faille@ca.gowlingwlg.com Aaron Christoff Email: aaron.christoff@gowlingwlg.com Keith Brown Email: Keith.Brown@gowlingwlg.com Tel.: (604) 891-2764
Dandy	Abuse and discrimination against Indigenous children in youth protection centres in Quebec	Be an Indigenous person: - who was placed in a youth protection center pursuant to a youth protection law; - who was placed in a center pursuant to a young offenders law; - on or after October 1st, 1950; - while he or she was 17 years old or less; - and who was subjected to measures (confinement, use of force), discrimination, sexual abuse, or denied an education.	This class action was authorized by the Superior Court on April 3, 2025; no trial date has been set and no settlement has been reached. As a result, there is no guaranteed compensation nor any deadline for the time being.	Alexeev Avocats Website: DANDY v. ATTORNEY GENERAL OF QUEBEC ET AL, Superior Court of Quebec (500-06-001265-236) - Alexeev Attorneys Email: ac@alexeevco.com Tel.: 1-514-545-7080

Class Action	Issue	Eligibility	Compensation Process	For more information
Good Eagle	Deaths in residential schools	All individuals who: - had a family member who attended a Residential School; and - whose family member remains unaccounted for following their attendance at a Residential School; or - whose family member passed away while in attending a Residential School, and such information of the family member's passing was unreported, concealed, or otherwise not passed on.	This class action has not yet been certified (authorized) by the court, so no trial date has been set and no settlement has been reached. As a result, there is no guaranteed compensation nor any deadline for the time being.	Eleanore Sunchild Email: eleanore@sunchildlaw.com Guardian Law Group LLP Mathew Farrell Email: mfarrellab@gmail.com Website: www.guardian.law/ Email: reception@guardian.law Tel.: 587-315-1118

Class Action	Issue	Eligibility	Compensation Process	For more information
REMEDIES FOR DRINKING WATER AND HEALTH
Curve Lake First Nation and al.	First Nations drinking water quality – period from November 20, 1995, to June 20, 2021	All members, provided they were alive on November 20, 2017, belonging to First Nations whose federal lands (reserve or “Indian settlement”) were subject to a drinking water advisory, including a boil water advisory, do not consume advisory, or a do not use advisory, if that advisory lasted for at least one year in the period from November 20, 1995, to June 20, 2021. First Nations had to join the class: List of affected First Nations Does not apply to Indian settlements on provincial lands.	It is not possible to file a claim as the deadline has now expired. Deadline to apply for reconsideration of a negative decision based on eligibility: 60 days Deadline to appeal a decision regarding the calculation of the indemnity: 30 days	McCarthy Tétrault Email: counsel@firstnationsdrinkingwater.ca Tel.: 1-833-265-7589 Website: https://www.mccarthy.ca/en/class-action-litigation-drinking-water-advisories-first-nations OKT Bryce Edwards Email: bedwards@oktlaw.com Kevin Hille Email: khille@oktlaw.com Email: counsel@firstnationsdrinkingwater.ca Tel.: 1-833-265-7589 Website: www.oktlaw.com/services/cases/class-action-litigation-on-drinking-water

Class Action	Issue	Eligibility	Compensation Process	For more information
				water-advisories-on-first-nations-reserves/ Claims administrator: Deloitte Website: firstnationsdrinkingwater.ca/ Email: firstnationswater@deloitte.ca Tel.: 1-833-252-4220

Class Action	Issue	Eligibility	Compensation Process	For more information
Shamattawa First Nation and al.	First Nations drinking water quality – period from June 20, 2021	All members, provided they were alive on November 20, 2017, belonging to First Nations whose federal lands (reserve or “Indian settlement”) were subject to a drinking water advisory, including a boil water advisory, do not consume advisory, or a do not use advisory, if that advisory lasted for at least one year in the period from June 20, 2021.	The national class action was authorized by the Federal Court on March 14, 2023. The hearing on the Motion for Summary Judgment was held on October 7, 2024. Matter reserved. No trial date has been set and no settlement has been reached. As a result, there is no guaranteed compensation nor any deadline for the time being. First Nations wishing to participate should contact lawyers.	McCarthy Tétrault Alana Robert Email: alrobert@mccarthy.ca water@mccarthy.ca. Tel.: 1 877-244-7711 ext. 548022 Heather Mak Email: hmaki@mccarthy.ca water@mccarthy.ca. Tel.: 1 877-244-7711 ext. 523615 Website: https://www.mccarthy.ca/en/class-action-litigation-drinking-water-advisories-first-nations (section “Ongoing Long-Term Drinking Water Advisories”) OKT Bryce Edwards Email: bedwards@oktlaw.com Kevin Hille Email: khille@oktlaw.com Tel.: 416-981-9330

Hardy	Indian Hospitals	Individuals admitted to an Indian hospital administered by Canada between January 1, 1936, and December 31, 1981, and certain members of their families.	The Settlement was approved by the Federal Court on June 24, 2025. The claims process is now open. Claim forms are available at Federal Indian Hospitals Settlement Eligible claimants who suffered harm, including psychological, verbal, physical and/or sexual abuse at a Federal Indian Hospital may apply for compensation. Free legal representation is available for claimants who need support filing their claim. The deadline to submit a claim is July 27, 2028.	Website https://ihclassaction.ca/ Koskie Minsky Jonathan Ptak Email: jptak@kmlaw.ca Garth Myers Email: gmyers@kmlaw.ca Website: kmlaw.ca/cases/indian-hospitals-class-action/ Email: indianhospitalsclassaction@kmlaw.ca Tel.: 1-866-777-6308 Cooper Regel Steven Cooper Email: info@CooperRegel.ca Tel.: 1-800-994-7477 Klein Lawyers Website: www.callkleinlawyers.com/class-actions/current/indian-hospitals-class-action/ Tel.: 604-874-7171
---------------------	-------------------------	---	---	---

Class Action	Issue	Eligibility	Compensation Process	For more information
				Merchant Law Group Tel.: 1-888-567-7777
Jérôme	Housing for medical treatment/ medical boarding homes	Primary class: “Any Indigenous person housed in a boarding home operated, contracted, or funded by the Medical Services Branch of the Department of National Health and Welfare, and/or by any of its predecessors or successors.” Family class: “Any spouse or common-law partner or civil union spouse, ex-spouse, ex-common law partner or ex-civil union spouse, child, grandchild, brother or sister of a Primary Class Member.”	This class action has not yet been certified (authorized) by the court, so no trial date has been set and no settlement has been reached. As a result, there is no guaranteed compensation nor any deadline for the time being.	Dionne Schulze Indigenous Medical Boarding Homes – Dionne Schulze Email: admin@dionneschulze.ca Tel.: (514) 842-0748

Class Action	Issue	Eligibility	Compensation Process	For more information
REMEDIES FOR HOUSING
St. Theresa Point First Nation	First Nations Housing	Primary class: all members of First Nations who lived on reserve while: - at least 30% of its members resident on reserve were living in Band-Owned Housing that (a) had a shortfall of two bedrooms or more, and (b) required major repairs; or - at least 70% of its members resident on reserve were living in Band-Owned Housing that (a) had a shortfall of two bedrooms or more, or (b) required major repairs. Secondary class: Impacted First Nations bands. A list of impacted First Nations can be found here. To be included in the class action, bands must ask class counsel to add them.	On April 30, 2024, the Federal Court certified (authorized) this action as a class proceeding. A trial date has not yet been set, and no settlement has been reached. As a result, compensation is not yet guaranteed, and there is currently no deadline.	McCarthy Tétrault Alana Robert Email: alrobert@mccarthy.ca Tel.: 1-877-244-7711 ext. 548022 416-601-8022 Stephanie Willsey Tel.: 1-877-244-7711 ext. 548962 For bands: Email: housing@mccarthy.ca Website: https://www.mccarthy.ca/en/first-nations-housing-class-action Olthuis Kleer Townshend LLP Email: info@oktlaw.com Tel.: 416-981-9330